If your form is not postmarked by August 26, 2019, you will give up your right to object. You may not both object to the Settlement and exclude yourself. You can object only if you stay in the Class. Excluding yourself (or opting out) is telling the Court that you do not want to be part of the Class. If you exclude yourself, you have no basis to object because the case no longer affects you. After submitting this Notice of Objection, you may submit a longer statement in support of your objection by September 10, 2019 to the above addresses.
